

NEWS FOR THE ENGLISH MAIL

UNDER DISPATCH.

UNDER DISPATCH.
 For Yokohama.—Per Le Monge, To-day, at 11th instant, at 6 P.M.
 For Bangkok.—Per Joy, To-day, the 11th instant, at 5 P.M.
 For San Francisco.—Per James Guthrie, To-morrow, the 12th instant, at 3 P.M.
 For Swatow, Amoy and Foochow.—Per Yaco, To-morrow, the 12th instant, at 10 A.M.
 For Swatow and Foochow.—Per Fusitan, To-morrow, the 12th instant, at 5 P.M.

NOTICE.

ON SATURDAY, 4th January, 1898, will be published No. 1 of a New Volume of the

SUPREME COURT & CONSULAR GAZETTE.

A General Weekly Newspaper, having already a larger circulation in the Out-ports than any other paper.

Subscriptions for Hongkong and the South Sea Ports, including postage, $9 per half Year. 10 per Annum, payable in advance, may be sent to the Office of the Daily Press.

Subscribers wishing numbers to complete Volumes 1 and 2 should apply early, as copies of them are nearly out of print.

Shanghai, 10th December, 1897. [Printed]

Undersigned have this day
 THOMAS D. [illegible] Business

1. REMOVED.
miners formerly occupied by Messrs. RAYNA BROTHERS & Co., on the Praya No. 17, —
to Messrs. BOWRA & Co.
PETERSEN BROTHERS & Co.
111 212 Hongkong, 1st February, 1882.

2. REMOVED.
TRE Underigned has, on this day REMOVED
his office to the SHORE from Praya No. 17,
The Peninsula No. 13, Queen's Road Central,
formerly occupied by the CENTRAL BANK
BROTHERS, Limited.
At 2559 Hongkong, 7th December, 1882.

3. REMOVED.
TRE The office of the Underigned is at his new office, at the SHORE, corner of L
hurst Terrace.
RAYNA & BROTHERS & Co.
111 5 Hongkong, 2nd January, 1882.

Chronicle and Director

NOW READY.
THE Edition for 1868 is now ready for Delivery.
 As already announced, the Directory is published in Two Forms, Complete at $5, or the Lists of Residents and Port Divorced at $2.

at 69.

—

... Cl ... and th

Agents for Shanghai and the Chinese
Messrs. LANE, CRAWFORD & Co.
The Daily Press Office,
13th January, 1893.

BIRTH.
On the 22nd ult., at Foochow, the wife
P. GALTON, Esq., of a Son.

the delivery of the Daily Press from Monday morning at 10

The Daily Press
HONGKONG, FEBRUARY 11, 1868.

The startling news from Japan is more startling by its vagueness. It can surprise no one to hear that fighting broken out amongst the Japanese themselves. Perhaps, indeed, it would be difficult for anyone to give a clear idea of what the

...are fighting about, of what
...parties consist, or what.

ing objects sought, but it was known all that the Government of the country was undergoing a radical change, that something like a revolution was in progress, and easy to conjecture that the early administration of the "bloodless" character was ably premature. Revolution

bloodless, and when the warlike resources of a country have been undergoing extraordinary development for some years, it is especially improbable that a period which unusually be one of wild excitement to the bulk of the population, and of personal interest to the com

would pass by without a single sort. But we have neither read in the published in Japan, nor heard from returning from that country, any theory which could explain how war was inevitable. Everyone agreed that "the

...a fight soon," though
...to have arrived at comprehension of the political situation. So far as the Japanese question is revealed by circumstances, it seems to be a jealous desire on the part of sections of the powerful class to react against the advantages of internationalism.

the foreigners, had as much to do with the overthrow of the authority. The fundamental mistake was made by foreign nations in the hope that when they jumped to the conclusion that the Chinese Government was a mere puppet, they would be able to take over the country. The Chinese Government was the supreme sovereign of the whole country, and thought that it was its duty to maintain the integrity of the country.

a treaty with him they had

While the whole instincts of the people were opposed to the idea of foreign intervention, and all were in league to resist encroachment as far as possible, no disposition on the part of the

whom we had left alone, to
to the foreign su-

have been looked upon by the
the Deimos as a trifle peculiarly to the Tycoonate, with which, by a luck, they had nothing to do. The things in general, however, chamarvellous rapidity. In hours the whole nation

desire to profit by foreign interference as the aversion to the idea in the first instance. Then it may have come to pass that the Tyrolans are being looked upon with passive indifference as a man bogged with peculiar atti-

indignantly regarded as monopolised the advantages of modern discovery. Probably himself may have thought that, in his jurisdiction had borne all the expenses connected with the inauguration of foreign intercourse, they had some

to profit in a greater d

It does not appear, however, posing civil war to have broken out. Foreign residents will be in a either side. Possibly exchanged between the foreign ties and Stotsbashi at Osaka, and his enemies to regard foreigners

wedded to his theory of foreign
If he is being besieged or blockaded

that supposition, it

foreign representatives, in the absence of positive information respecting the intentions of the blockading force, was reluctant to face the risks attending a landing at Osaka, without a guarantee. We cannot help believing

even, after allowing

natural hope, that the Ministry any serious danger. Still if the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are illiterate has increased from 1.2 billion to 1.5 billion. The number of illiterate people in the world is expected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015. The number of illiterate people in the world is expected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015.

